O. B. WOMEN'S CLUB TO PERFECT ORGANIZATION NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

MISS ROBERTA WINANS

Mrs. David A. Fraser, a prominent clubwoman of San Diego city and county, will address the newly-formed Women's Club of Ocean Beach at their meeting next Monday night, November 24, and will assist them in perfecting their organization.

Every woman resident of the Beach is urged to attend next Monday's meeting, which will be held at 1955 Abbott street, starting promptly at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Fraser will tell of some of the interesting work other clubs are doing and of the help the county federation has to offer.

The Constitution committee has had the help and advice of presidents and board members of several neighboring woman's clubs in drawing up the constitution and by-laws which will be presented for adoption at the meeting Monday evening. The Club's aims, as expressed by those who attended the first meeting, are to work for the welfare of the community along civic, social and educational lines, co-operating with other agencies which have these ends in view.

HEADLIGHT ADJUSTMENT ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY NOW ACCORDING TO LAW

"Better be safe than sorry," says Henry Eulberg while advising beach motorists to visit his Ocean Beach garage on Newport avenue, where an official headlight testing station has been established with prompt expert service.

It is stated by W. H. Marsh, chief of the state division of motor vehicles, that twenty-one varieties of lenses have been approved under the new regulations, and 161 devices approved under the former state law now used throughout the state will become obsolete December 31.

During the present campaign anyone using barred headlight equipment will be notified. Stop lights and signal devices are included and inspectors will inform motorists of the proper devices and lights that can be used under the new law.

Headlight conditions throughout the state are bad and officials are anxious to see a big improvement before the rainy season starts when many accidents are caused by glaring and improperly adjusted headlights."

Join NOW and assure the permanency of the local baseball club.

NEW PRESIDENT SAN DIEGO CHAMBER

A. E. Holloway, superintendent of the commercial department of the San Diego Gas and Electric Co., was unanimously chosen president of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce by the new board of directors at their first meeting on yesterday afternoon. The staff of "The Beach News" congratulates Mr. Holloway and wishes him every success.

Keeping pace with the progress of this grand residential section of sunny Southern California, "The Beach News" will be enlarged to EIGHT PAGES, beginning with next week's issue on Saturday, November 29. The subscription rate will remain at $1.00 per year, and the paper will be mailed for that price to any place on the map. And here's some of the wonderful features that will appear each week, besides a full summary of all local and social news and the customary epitome of municipal affairs:

"Loma Lore" series by Winifred Davidson.
Two columns of State News.
Three columns of comic strips.
Two columns of Household Hints.
Three columns of World pictures.
Two-column complete modern story.
Three-column Magazine section.
Two-column Geography of Today.
A column about Community building.
A column solely for children.
A column of sensational news.
A column concerning radio.
And "Katherine's Kollum."
And Editorials.
And so forth.

And all each week for only $1.00 per year.

It is the best and greatest offer of any weekly newspaper for that price on the Pacific Coast.

This splendid presentation to our readers has been made possible only through the generous patronage of our advertisers as well as through our co-operation with the Western Newspaper Union, who have under contract some of the best known writers and illustrators for furnishing interesting and valuable material to their clientele. We gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to Mr. G. S. Foxworthy, Pacific coast manager of the W. N. U., and Mr. H. L. Sumerlin, the Southern California representative of the W. N. U., for their intelligent and continuous efforts in our behalf and we are most happily proud of being a regular member of the big W. N. U. newspaper family.

CHAPTER XXIII.

OLD GLEANINGS

There was but meager harvest in the news field fifty years ago for the person interested in the happenings on Point Loma. The San Diego Union notes that the steamer Oriflamme entered the harbor for the first time on Tuesday, December 15, 1868, thus establishing a regular line of passenger and freight steamers calling every week.

The following issue calls attention to the fact that whalers killed two whales. One of them was the largest ever killed at this place and rendered out about ninety barrels of oil.

Early in January the Union devotes the better part of a column to an excursion over to the lighthouse; and because it gives details of points of interest and brings back the atmosphere of the times, it is quoted here:

"By the kind invitation of Mr. Morse, we made one of a party of four last Sunday," says Mr. W. Jefferson Gatewood, editor of the Union, "and visited the airy lighthouse on Point Loma. The day was one of the many indescribable lovely days with which San Diego seems to be blessed. The feeling of freedom and relaxation with which we took a seat in the carriage seemed to meet with a generous response from the present atmosphere and all the 'cares and concerns of this transitory life' flitted away, long before the horses had dashed into the turbid waters of the San Diego. (Note: The river must have been running—cutting off the point from the mainland at Dutch flats.) But a little distance from the Plaza (Old Town) we passed near the grave of one whose name was once a magic sound in the legislative halls of the republic of Texas, and who for many years was a quiet and beloved citizen of San Diego. The grave is upon a little eminence on the eastern slope of the Loma mountain and looks complacently upon the busy denizens of Old Town."

This refers to the grave of Judge Robinson, which Mr. Hilliard says was on the southern slope of what is now Mr. Bridge's place, looking rather to the new Ocean Beach boulevard. Mr. Gatewood continues.

"A little further on—where the green hillside slopes gently down to the waters of the bay innumerable stakes denote the streets and blocks of an embryo city."

Some of these ancient markers may still be seen; wherever you stroll upon the hillsides here on Point Loma: silent witness of many hopes deferred; for only within the history of the newest newcomers has the promontory begun to assume the characteristics of a developing city suburb.

"The horses cantered gaily over the green sward, along the water's verge (near the present Rosecrans boulevard, for the old road left the present Chatsworth boulevard and came across through Glenartney canyon to the bay) and our friends took particular pains to inform us that we were passing through the principal street of Rose City; while the lady passengers amused themselves by building airy castles upon innumerable blocks and filling the streets with industrious denizens. A few minutes more and we were among the ruins of the Playa. At the end of a little wooden walk not far from the shore stands a cabin on stilts in which is kept the tide gauge. Back some distance from the bay stands an old dilapidated building once occupied by the government as a customs house; but the only building in which a live soul could be seen was the residence of Mrs. Brown. This place is five miles from Old Town and in years 'lang syne' was the place of landing for vessels entering the port to trade for hides. It was then and by the old residents is still called the 'Hide Houses.'"

FAREWELL LUNCHEON TO BAPTIST MINISTERS

FOLK DANCES FIND FAVOR

MRS. JESSIE PELTCHER COMPLETES COURSE WITH FIRST CLASS FOR TEACHERS

Nineteen members of the first Community Service folk dance class for leaders finished the course last week. A second class is to begin soon. All who attended the first course are enthusiastic over the possibilities of folk dancing as recreation for both children and adults. Many are already teaching groups and the others are planning to do so. The last meeting wound up with a party in which the class, the teacher and accompanists and a few guests took part and requests for more courses were numerous.

Of the mothers and others besides teachers in the class Mrs. Glasser is assisting Miss Winans with the folk dance classes at the Fremont school in North San Diego, Mrs. Peltcher is teaching her own children and some of the neighbors at Ocean Beach, Mrs. Sessions is planning to teach a small neighborhood group and others will probably do the same as soon as groups can be organized.

The following are those who took the entire course: Bonnylee Baldwin, Ethel Bayless, Florence L. Blake, Theresa M. Cox, Beatrice Cox, Marian A. Giles, Mrs. Hattie B. Glasser, Elceia Hamilton, Mrs. J. M. Jones, Amy Marston, Helen Marston, Matie McCready, Rebecca C. Ord, Mrs. Jessie Peltcher, Bertie Reams, Mrs. Adeline K. Sessions, Elsie Weller, Mrs. Hermine F. Keiser.

Further courses in folk dancing for leaders, under the direction of Miss Roberta Winans of the Community Service staff, are being planned. Those desiring to join one of the classes are invited to register at 615 Broadway, or phone 622-25.

POISON TABLETS TAKEN ACCIDENTALLY WHILE VISITING O. B. FRIENDS

Mrs. Antoinette Hilliard, widow of Brady Hilliard, who died as the result of being struck by Fred Sanford of the district attorney's office border patrol at the border in August, 1923, was accidentally poisoned while visiting at the home of Mrs. E. S. Fay, 4836 West Point Loma boulevard, last Sunday morning, by taking several bichloride of mercury tablets from a wrong bottle through inadvertence.

Mrs. Hilliard was taken to the Mercy hospital in the police ambulance, being promptly treated by Dr. Louis Strahlman and later, it is said, she insisted on leaving the hospital and going to the home of her sister in National City. A published story of attempted suicide was denied by those directly interested.

BOARD OF EDUCATION FAVORS BOND ISSUE PLAN FOR O. B. PLAYGROUND

The subject of the development of the playground Ocean Beach proposes to acquire through the Harmon Gift and by a local bond issue has been informally discussed with Superintendent Johnson and members of the Board of Education, and while no formal action has been taken they feel there will be no difficulty in appropriating funds for this purpose. They are heartily in favor of the proposal and express the keenest interest and appreciation of the spirit of the residents of the Beach in setting out to secure land for recreational purposes.

O. B. SCHOOL ITEMS

By Thelma Martin, 8th Grade.

Education Week is going along fine, but would be better if more people came to school. The Eighth grade girls held a luncheon on Wednesday at 11:30 a. m. and most of the parents were present.

In the hall are many pieces of work by the pupils. A very nice display of sewing was contributed by some of the domestic science girls.

Since Thanksgiving comes on Thursday the school will close on Wednesday evening of next week.

The campaign for the $4,000 playground bonds which we are to vote, is coming along nicely. We want you to help, too, and make it come in faster, for just last week a little child was hurt by an automobile while playing in the street. This is an example why we need the playground. We don't want your child or anyone else's hurt, so hurry up with the playground!

BUD SHIRTON INJURED IN MOTORCYCLE ACCIDENT

While riding a motorcycle near the Naval Training Station last Sunday afternoon, Ora Hill, of El Cajon, was thrown from the machine, which skidded at a turn in the road. He received broken bones in his right foot and possible internal injuries. Riding with Hill was Bud Shirton, school boy, 4844 Muir street, Ocean Beach, who incurred a fracture of the left knee. Both victims of the accident were taken to the county hospital and are reported to be gradually recovering from their painful injuries.

THIRD ANNUAL GREETING

With this issue, "The Beach News" commences its third year—Vol. III., No. 1, and, with the completion of necessary mechanical arrangements now in progress, it will be increased to EIGHT PAGES, beginning with next week's issue. The subscription price will remain at $1.00 per year and renewals are now in order, thank you!

Just two years ago, or to be statistically exact, on Friday, November 24, 1922, "The Beach News" made its initial appearance with the promise of being persistently progressive in policy and consistently constructive in purpose, as well as conservatively clean and wholesome in news, while ever to the fore in promoting the welfare of the beach districts and the entire Point Loma peninsula.

The beginning of our third year presages the same aims and ideals as set forth in our birth salutatory. And from it we are happy to repeat that it is a great gratification to chronicle the fact that the progressive business constituency of this glorious beach and bay section of San Diego has seen fit to shower mighty cheerful encouragement with most substantial evidence of their hearty cooperation.

We hope to merit a continuance of the highly valued advertising patronage as well as the friendliness and esteem of our ever increasing circle of subscribers.

For the third annual time, we greet you!

SUBSCRIBES FOR TWO YEARS

Mrs. R. F. Smith, of 4623 Coronado avenue, is a staunch believer in her community paper and has entered her subscription to "The Beach News" for two years. Thanks, Mrs. Smith, for your loyalty.

CONGRATULATIONS, AL,
WE'RE GROWING, TOO!

Just as we go to press, the "La Jolla Light" reaches our desk, with a Tuesday date line of this week, and a conspicuous announcement that the paper will be a semi-weekly hereafter. Our sincere congratulations are extended to Editor Al Fairbrother and his very capable consort, Mrs. Fairbrother, upon the substantial success attending their splendid journalistic work.

Thanksgiving Dinner!

Visions of a richly-browned turkey—cranberries—pumpkin pie—and all the time-honored "fixin's"!

GAS FOR COOKING

will be used in millions of American homes on this great occasion, for Thanksgiving dinner is essentially a "home" affair. But there are many people who prefer to dine out, and these will seek the restaurants with good food and good service.

Perhaps you won't have time to equip your restaurant kitchen with gas service in time to attract this holiday crowd—but there is no time like the present to prepare for the future. Not only Thanksgiving Day, but every other day in the year, will find your place crowded if you establish a reputation for good food, properly cooked and served.

Yuu can do it with GAS—it it clean, safe, convenient, economical.

AN APPRECIATION

The following kind words of commendation and appreciation have been received from Miss Kate Spani, the very efficient and popular principal of the Ocean Beach Public School:

My dear Mr. Smith: I wish to thank you for the excellent article and the space given us in your paper on "Education Week" in last Friday's issue.

I am sending you one of our bulletins. Most sincerely,

KATE SPANI.

GREAT COMMUNITY BUILDER

Los Angeles, as a city, has been unique in many ways. With the death of Frank Wiggins, Secretary of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce for thirty-four years, the record of that city's growth is again brought to public attention in a striking manner.

It is altogether probable that the growth of Los Angeles along industrial lines can be credited to Mr. Wiggins' uninterrupted tenure of office as secretary which enabled him to carry out his program of encouraging the establishment of factories, harbor improvements, good roads, transportation and all the things which give employment to labor.

Mr. Wiggins realized that if payrolls could be coupled with climate and tourist business, that his home city would grow as in no other way.

That his theory was correct is shown by his own monument which he helped build—a city of over a million population, whose future is assured by expanding industrial activity on every side.

San Diego, with its wonderful beach and bay districts, can well do likewise.

Please mention The Beach News in your dealings with the patrons of our advertising columns.

OPPOSES FEDERAL RAIL OWNERSHIP

Government Operation Would Mean Increased Taxation for General Public, Says Rail Head.

Opposition to Government ownership of the railroads, not because of the interests of the present owners but rather because of the burdens and disadvantages the change would impose upon the people as a whole, was expressed by C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central Railroad, in an address before the recent convention of the American Bankers Association.

"We have never favored Government ownership as a national policy," Mr. Markham said. "If the railroads are taken over by the Government, we must face the fact that the big step in reversing our old and settled policy will be taken. If there is no particular reason why the Government should not own and run the railroads, is there any reason why it should not take over also the banks, the stores, the factories, the farms, until all of us are Government employees and the ideal of the soviet is attained? The railroads are the first line of defense against those who would make this country a second Russia.

"The railroads have about 2,000,000 employees, approximately as many employees as there are in all the Government services — Federal, State, county and municipal—put together. If the railroads are taken over by the Government, [illegible]

Doubling Taxation

"Then, too, there is the matter of taxation. The railroads, under private ownership, are among our heaviest taxpayers. Last year they paid taxes amounting to $3 for every man, woman and child in the country. In some counties, particularly in the Middle West, the railroads pay from 10 per cent to nearly 50 per cent of the taxes collected. Under Government ownership, the railroads would be no more subject to taxation than the post offices now are. In some way the Government would have to make up the difference of $3 a head for every person in the country. In many counties the taxes on the remaining property would have to be nearly doubled. The result would be an unbearable burden that might force many of our local governments to stop payments on their bonds and go into bankruptcy. The tax problem would be a great deal more vexatious than it is today.

"Then, too, the acquisition of the railroads would add more than twenty billion dollars to our national debt. If Government railroads in this country were no more successful than they are elsewhere today in the world, the interest on that twenty billions of purchase price would be the cause for additional burdens on the taxpayers left to carry it. As the tax burden developed, it would not be surprising to see other industries welcoming Government ownership for themselves. They would gain immunity from taxation in turn, and their owners probably would be protected from loss. The Constitution prevents the confiscation of private property, and Government ownership can be accomplished only by paying a fair price for the properties taken over.
